

Funding Options for Post- Secondary Funding

Apprenticeship, certificate, diploma, degrees, industry related certification, wage subsidy for employment, self-employment

Links and Contacts for you to research your funding options:

1. www.indspire.ca INDSPIRE foundation
2. www.dcfund.ca Dreamcatchers Fund
3. www.nwac.ca National Native Women's Association limited to females, regional offices exist
4. www.amiskusees.com Worme Family Foundation
5. Congress of Aboriginal Peoples limited to urban aboriginal peoples <http://abo-peoples.org/all-project-list/skills-training/>
6. Employment Insurance may be an option if you have an active EI claim, the Career consultant will advise you to research and secure other scholarships and bursaries to supplement your finances
7. Indigenous bursaries search tool
8. www.nibtrust.ca National Indian Brotherhood Trust fund
9. <https://youthincare.ca/saskatchewan/> Youth in Care (Indian child & Family Services/Department of Social Services)
10. <https://gdins.org/> 306 445-5081 Michelle in North Battleford Aboriginal Apprenticeship project
11. ASETS funding holders in the area you reside are usually urban aboriginal offices
North Battleford- BATC SITAG office (306) 446-8230
Saskatoon- STC Urban Services (306) 659-2500
Regina- Regina Urban Services (306) 924-1606
Edmonton – Ottenow Urban Services (780) 444-0911

<https://www.canada.ca/en/employment-social-development/services/indigenous/agreement-holders.html>

Other words used for ASETS : Labour market, labour force development LFD

This list is only a guide for First Nations options for post-secondary to research.

Ask the agency about their eligibility requirements:

are you eligible to apply? and if your training/program choice is eligible.

Ask them their deadline date for applications.